

Paul: The Man and the Message

Minicourse appropriate for grades 11-12
Saint Paul's influence on the development of the early church was profound. Paul: The Man and the Message is designed to help young people appreciate the life and writings of the person that some have called the second founder of Christianity. Participants explore the roots of Paul's passion, conviction, and deep spiritual insight. Their study of his letters reveals the struggles and successes of the first Christian communities. Ultimately, the course invites the young people to a deeper appreciation of God's love and saving power in their life.
