

All for a Sister

In Hollywood during the Roaring Twenties, Celeste DuFrane has it all. Her fathers work with color movie film opens doors that lead to the stardom shes always aspired to. But after losing her mother, she discovers that half the estate has been left to a woman accused of killing Celestes baby sister before Celeste was even born. Dana Lundgren arrives on the steps of the DuFrane mansion having spent most of her life imprisoned for a crime that never happened. After accusing her of murder so many years ago, why did Marguerite DuFrane leave her a sizeable inheritance? As Celeste and Dana learn each others stories, they come up with more questions than answers. Then a surprising discovery begins to fill in the missing pieces: Marguerite DuFrane's written confession, penned shortly before her death. Uncovering the treachery and deceit that changed the course of countless lives?most of all, their own?the two women find more than they ever dreamed of.
