

Under the Bed (Biblical Sense Book 2)

Abba did not expect a second marriage to provide him with anything more than pleasant companionship. He was therefore caught by surprise by the erotic chemistry that turned both he and his fiancée into simmering cauldrons of hot anticipation, which reached a boiling point on their first night alone together. But were they in fact alone? In this second installment to the Biblical Sense series, Under the Bed presents in full erotic relief a well-known Talmudic anecdote involving the sage Rav and his student Kahana. Both the story and the analytical discussion that follows provide critical insight into the Talmuds sex positive attitude, as well as a fascinating and profound approach to sex education.
