

It Must Be Fate (Love Strikes Book 2)

Sometimes the future lies in the past Sandy Collins hasn't thought about him in years, not since he broke her heart and broke off their engagement. She's built a great nursing career for herself, and most of all, she's happy. Until she ruined it by walking into that staff meeting. After the passing of his grandmother, Daniel and his daughter Keri have moved back to town and taken up residence in her house. Things are looking up after several rough years, but on the first day of work at his new job as a pediatrician, Daniel gets an unexpected surprise in the form of a nurse he's never been able to forget. As much as she tries to fight it, Sandy can't deny the attraction. Daniel makes it clear that he's sorry and wants another shot, and he's willing to do whatever it takes. But the last thing Sandy wants is to relive the misery from the past. But how can she resist when it seems as though fate is stepping in?
