

Street Girl: A life of hardship, heroism and hope

Rozana McGrattan was a Brazilian street girl, living rough in the dangerous slums of Sao Paulo. She is now a successful business woman living in London, and her story Street Girl is full of drama, colour and inspiration. In this unique memoir, we journey through an extraordinary life of homelessness, poverty and violence, with Rozanas inner hope providing the only light in a city of darkness as she fights to escape and succeed, against insurmountable odds. Rozanas tale is an inspiration to people all over the world, showing that abuse, exploitation and intimidation can be overcome with courage and belief, and that love can truly set you free.
