

Advent and Christmas in Family Worship

If you want your Christmas season this year to be focused on the full redemptive work of Christ the King, this booklet will help you. Other families both in and outside of our congregation have been blessed by their use of this excellent resource.- Did you know that the Jesus birth is foretold in the Old Testament many times? Have you ever read through those passages? Did you know that Advent officially starts immediately following Thanksgiving and lasts for four weeks ending on Christmas Day? Most holidays only last one day. Why does the Christmas season last for nearly a month? Take a few moments this year to discover the glory of Christ and the miracle of His birth in all its fullness. Make this years holiday truly meaningful by teaching your children what it is they are celebrating. Show them the greatness of Christ working through history to save them since the creation of the world. In a daily, easy-to-use format, Advent and Christmas in Family Worship gives you short scripture readings, songs, and craft suggestions that weave together the story of the Nativity and Christs redemptive work in history through both the Old Testament prophecies and their New Testament fulfillment. With readings and devotionals starting on the first day of Advent and finishing up on Christmas day, this beautiful, softcover book will be a favorite at family devotion time for years to come. Re-discover the quiet beauty of the person and work of Christ this Christmas and impress this love on the hearts of your children.
