EDITORIAL REVIEW: Procrastination can feel like a hard-wired impulse, a force of nature designed to keep you from reaching your potential. It can make your deadlines speed by and your resolutions fall to the floor before you even notice they're gone. In Procrastinating like a Boss!, entrepreneur and procrastination whisperer Gordon Sharp debunks the myths surrounding procrastination and shows you how to make this former bad guy work for you instead of against you. This book helps you examine your relationship with procrastination and forces you to ask yourself, why do I do it? How do I do it? And, why can't I break the habit? Sharp illuminates and lampoons your excuses, while giving you practical methods for combatting them. He highlights the ways in which you can take procrastination from harmful to healing, through tried and tested research, wisdom and expert advice. With its proven time management techniques and tips for constructing healthy new routines, Procrastinating like a Boss! will show you how to slay the dragon of procrastination today! Here's what people who have read this book have to say: You may think that the book just helps you to stop procrastinating, but it not only helps you to stop procrastinating, but to watch all areas in your life turn successful. Its also a great read! - Arthur Freud The book lays out the steps on how to turn procrastination into a positive movement in all areas of your life. You will see that when you procrastinate you are not just putting something off, but you can affect your health, life and work. I was really impressed with the information that was provided in the book. - Jessica Miller There is a lot that I didn't realize I did, but falls into the procrastinating area. I will use the advice given and apply it to all areas of my life. The book Procrastinating like a Boss! by Gordon Sharp is a wonderful book with amazing advice and tips. Gina Simonns
