

Journey (Legacies of the Ancient River)

His younger brother will be greater than he. With those words, Menashe dreams collapse. As Yosef's eldest son, his position had seemed secure. But now Efrayim, charming Efrayim, whose everything Menashe is not is taking his place. With their people. With the pharaoh. With Jendayi, the slave Menashe loves. Efrayim, meanwhile, sees his dreams confirmed. Surely it's his destiny to unite the Egyptians and Hebrews. To marry a princess and achieve splendor surpassing that of his brother. Then Menashe's dreams take a dangerous twist as he becomes obsessed with returning the Hebrews to their homeland. If he succeeds, he'll restore their heritage. If he fails, she could destroy them all.
