

Refuting Allah, Proving Jesus: Christian Truth and Presuppositions Critique Islam (Presuppositional Apologetics Examines World Religions: Islam Book 1)

Its difficult to find books that refute Islam using worldview criticism and Christian truth, yet some thinkers, like Glenn Beck, properly warn Its all about Islam. In Refuting Allah, Proving Jesus Robinson produces an innovative book that argues that Islamic thought fails the test of reason and that Christian theism is not only true, but Christianity is rationally necessary and assured. Refuting Allah, Proving Jesus: Christian Truth and Presuppositions Critique Islam is a readable volume; accessible yet scholarly. Refuting Allah, Proving Jesus Christian Truth evaluates the claims of Islam and examines the evidence for the Christian counterclaim, equipping you with strong apologetic answers. This fresh edition provides resources and leading-edge argumentation throughout and a great companion to Glenn Beck and his book Its all about Islam. Robinson defines difficult terminology and explains challenging concepts so no one is baffled by the clear contentions he furnishes. This fresh resource establishes the necessary reliability of the New Testament, and in contrast with Islam, that Christianity is the only sound worldview; it alone provides logical, philosophical, and theological essentials. This volume is a must for everyone concerned about defending Christian theism against the claims of Islamic thought. If you desire to find out how a philosophical, biblical, theological, and transcendental analysis refutes the Quran and Islamic thought, then this book is for you. Within its pages are numerous deductive and transcendental arguments which make it a very unique book regarding comparative religion. Its a fine resource for a searching non-Christian, those with apologetic or philosophical interests, religious scholars, and ministers. Refuting Allah, Proving Jesus is a clearly written and fairly presented statement of what Islamic Theism implies and how Christians can argue for the truth of the Triune God as we present the claims of Christ to Muslims in a persuasive and caring manner. Logically meticulous, apologetically relevant, and philosophically indispensable, this is a richly illuminating work. Anyone interested in sharing the truth with Muslim friends or understanding the doctrines and theological foundation of Islam will appreciate this new apologetic resource. Using an easy-to-follow format this book helps the reader answer questions like: Muhammad and Jesus Christ what are their roles and who has a legitimate claim to authority? The Quran and the Bible what kind of inspiration and authority do they have? Islamic Theology What are the theological, philosophical, and logical problems? Did Mohammad exist and what are the flaws of the Quran? Readers will discover that this is an invaluable tool for discussing and sharing the truth and life of Christ with Muslim friends and acquaintances. Mike Robinson, author of 30 Apologetic books, longtime pastor of Christ Covenant Church and instructor at FLBS.
