

Christianity and the World Religions: Paths to Dialogue With Islam, Hinduism, and Buddhism

There is a significant connection between ecumenism and world peace. Anyone who feels a sense of obligation toward the world community, who takes seriously the fragility of all human arrangements, who has glimpsed the possibilities of technical and human error, must know what is at stake here. He must know that the threat to peace and the need to regulate it have long since burst through the dimensions of the specific, regional conflict, and have become global political problems on which the survival of us all depends. This is a large trade paperback not a hardcover.
