

Cindy and the Fella

They're united by love for the wrong people. This hilarious romantic comedy by the author of more than 95 published novels was a finalist for the Golden Quill and Booksellers Best awards. When second-grade teacher Cindy McChad of Oofdah, Minnesota, learns that her best friend and fiance is dumping her for a woman he met in a graduate program, she flies to Clair De Lune, California, to talk to him. There, she runs into absentminded English professor Hugh Bemling, who's smitten by that same young woman. Cindy's a take-charge lady with a big heart and an outdated wardrobe. Hugh has the soul of a gallant knight and the physique of a nerd. They could both use a fairy godmother, and that's what they find in each other. With the help of an eccentric group of senior citizens, Hugh and Cindy make remarkable progress in winning the objects of their affections. The problem is, after the ball, will they realize which person they truly love before it's too late?
