

Felix (The Ninth Inning Book 1)

The Ninth Inning series presents Memphis Angels pitcher, Felix Hernandez. Felix Hernandez's life is baseball, baseball, baseball, and then his family. He rarely remembers anything that doesn't concern the game. He's never had a good enough reason to reprioritize his life or change his ways. Relying on her sisters most of the time, Abigail Harris is trying to put her life in order. She's now a graduate student and living on her own. It's not until Felix deems her his lucky charm that her life begins to change. Now, Abigail isn't sure if she should be focusing on her happiness or the professional baseball player. Can the two handle any fastballs that come their way or will they strike out under pressure?
