

Eighteen Days to the Massacre

The story of lions, tigers, and bears being released at a Southeastern Ohio home in October of 2011 made worldwide headlines. This is the true story from the perspective of John Moore, the caregiver for the Thompson exotic animal farm, as he shares with you the last eighteen days in the life of Terry Thompson and the saga that continued to make national headlines long after his death. The book contains a full color pictorial remembrance section. Twenty percent of all sales will be donated to organizations dedicated to the care and preservation of exotic animals.
