

Kids Say the Best Things About Life: Devotions and Conversations for Families on the Go

Kids Say the Best Things About Life offers family-centered devotions and conversations that will help you pull your family members together for five minutes (or less) at the start of every day. Each of the books devotions begins with a humorous quote from a child and uses interesting, fun facts to coordinate the days themes. The book then presents specific challenges and ideas for ways the whole family can use the days spiritual truth that day. And when the busy day is over, gather the family together once more for an end-of-the-day review of how all of you have used the mornings thought throughout the day.
