

Hannahs Christmas Hope

Hannahs Christmas Hope is an inspirational romance novella. Hannah Miller has adjusted to life after losing her husband three years ago, focusing on building a future for herself and her young son, Andrew. Falling in love again is the last thing on her mind. After the family dog, Shadow, runs away, Andrew makes two Christmas wishes: to get his dog back and to get a new dad. When Shadow is returned by a handsome stranger, Andrew thinks both wishes have been answered. Ben Murphy is an attractive veterinarian with a big heart and Hannah has a hard time controlling her emotions when she's near him. But after a startling discovery, she wonders if another chance at love is too much to hope for after all.
