

Henry James Waistcoat: Letters to Mrs Ford, 1907-1915

Limited edition of 600 copies; ISBN 9780954454216. When, in 1999, Rosalind Bleach discovered some forty letters from Henry James in a bureau that had belonged to her mother, she was naturally astonished. Her mother had never mentioned their existence. They were written to Mrs Ford, a friend and country neighbour whose name appears only occasionally in James notebooks. As Philip Horne writes, the fine old letters breathe an air of relaxed affection and intimate warmth that makes Henry James Waistcoat a comfort to - well, put on. And the story they tell is framed by the editors account of the mysterious way the letters came down to her. Rosalind Bleach has a degree in Comparative Literature at the University of East Anglia. She works as a Speech and Language therapist in Oxford. Philip Horne edited Henry James: A Life in Letters (1999). He is a Professor of English Literature at University College London.
