

Abrahams Shield: Five Civil War Stories

Two Soldiers, Two Armies, One Indelible Connection... Hans and Levy are fighting on opposite sides of one of the American Civil Wars most famous and hard fought battles. They are the bitterest of enemies until brought together in a way that transcends time and space! Abrahams Shield is a collection of five stories involving these two men and the overall Jewish experience at a time when the United States was being torn apart by a horrific Civil War and simultaneously growing into one of the greatest civilizations the world has ever known! This book comes complete with period photographs and easy to read maps of the actual battles! It is a must have for fans of historical fiction and students of the Civil War and history alike!
