

Jesus, Life Coach Journal: Training Your Life

Based on the book Jesus, Life Coach, this journal will be a great follow-up tool on how you personally can better manage your life through the example of Jesus, the ultimate Life Coach. Who better than Jesus to be our personal training coach to guide and direct us through the myriad of responsibilities and distractions we encounter and attempt to solve each day? Each journaling entry will be prompted by a brief question addressing one of the four key areas in the trade book: Focus, Balance, Productivity, and Fulfillment. Some of the journal questions may come directly from the questions offered at the end of each of the sixty short chapters in the trade book. The journal is a tool to help people create individual playbooks for their lives under the Life Coach's direction.
