

Just a Kiss (The Bradfords Book 5)

Shes unforgettable and thats exactly what got him into trouble the first time. The Bradfords, Book 5 As a paramedic in the busiest ER in the city, Kevin Campbell knows theres no such thing as a typical night but this one definitely has them all beat. His dads been stabbed with a fork, his moms been in a fight, and its all because of a younger half-brother he never knew existed. And if thats not enough, everyone seems to agree that Kevin should take the boy in for the six months during his moms rehab. Oh, and the annulment he thought he got fourteen years ago? Never went through. Its really too bad he gave up drinking and swearing. Eve Donnelly is shocked to see Kevin again, but not surprised theyre still married. After all, she was the one who refused to sign the annulment papers. Now that shes got Kevin back in her life, nothing else matters. Not even her past fourteen less-than-virtuous years. In fact, the truth about her life without Kevin isnt even worth bringing up. She hopes. When Eve offers to help Kevin with his younger brother, a sweet, devout preachers daughter seems like an answered prayer. Besides, things cant get more complicated. Can they? Warning: Contains a bad boy gone good, a good girl who knows all about being bad, and lots of hot, sweet, so-this-is-how-married-couples-do-it sex.
