

At Home with God: Stories of Life, Love, and Laughter

You've invited Him into your heart, now invite Him into your home. What would it be like to open your front door and find the Father standing there? Would He first pause a moment to enjoy the welcoming wreath upon your door? Would He maybe even sit in the wicker rocking chair before ringing the bell? Would He feel welcome - at home and free to enter in? Open your heart to the Father as never before - He is standing at the door knocking. Welcome Him into your home. When you do, you will see He has been there waiting for you all along. Catch a glimpse of His presence in your own life and feel...At Home with God.
