

Lloyd George: War Leader, 1916-1918 (David Lloyd George biography Book 4)

John Grigg's four-volume life of Lloyd George is one of the great political biographies. This, the final volume, opens with Lloyd George's succession to the Premiership in December 1916, when Britain faced starvation and defeat through the German U-boat campaign, its allies France, Russia and Italy were tottering, the Liberal Party was bitterly divided and unrest in Ireland was growing. Worst of all, military chiefs regarded themselves as at least the equals of the government. To resolve these crises required ruthlessness, political genius and leadership of the highest order. In this thrilling book we see one of Britain's most resourceful Prime Ministers in brilliant action, steering his country to victory. It is a tragedy John Grigg did not live to complete his magnum opus but what exists is a masterpiece. Faber Finds is reissuing the four volumes: The Young Lloyd George, Lloyd George: The People's Champion 1902-1911, Lloyd George: From Peace to War 1912-1916, Lloyd George: War Leader 1916-1918. With the volume, Grigg crowns the edifice of one of the great biographies of our time. Anthony Howard - Sunday Times A fitting climax to a path-breaking study. John Campbell, Independent, Books of the Year Superb... the fullest account we shall ever have of Lloyd George's career as a wartime Prime Minister. It is a fascinating story and is told with panache, vigour, clarity and impartiality by a great biographer... brings out as never before the brilliance of Lloyd George's finest hour. Robert Blake, Evening Standard A major publishing event... Grigg mingles factual precision, high-interest value and judgements which are mostly as wise as they are forthright. Roy Jenkins, Sunday Telegraph, Books of the Year Gripping... essential... This wonderful biography, clear and authoritative, every page a lesson in how to write narrative history, well up to its preceding volumes, recreates both a time of acute national danger and an extraordinary man. Max Egremont, Financial Times
