

Christmas Every Day (Silhouette Intimate Moments No. 538)

JUST PASSING THROUGH Nik Sinclair needed a temporary accountant, and Sara Santangelo was a temporary kind of woman. Never mind that when he said day, she said night. Nik could put up with anything for a few weeks including a maddeningly feisty and footloose employee. But Nik soon suspected that Sara wasn't fancy-free after all—she was running from something. He was far too busy to care....so why was he longing to soothe Sara's wounded soul—and capture her gypsy heart? Sara wanted Nik as much as he wanted her, but life had taught her that nothing wonderful ever lasted. Love, like Christmas, was merely a few fleeting moments of joy. And Sara's feelings for Nik meant only one thing: it was time to move on....
