

Ephesians (Reformed Expository Commentaries)

The Apostle Paul wrote the little house churches of the ancient metropolis of Ephesus this amazing truth: through such as you the purposes of Christ will fill the world; he is transforming all things for you and through you. Now Dr. Bryan Chapell, noted preacher and teacher of preaching, unfolds Paul's glorious description of how this triumph of the church will occur and what our roles are in Christ's ultimate victory. This REC Commentary on Ephesians is intended to be a true homiletical commentary, serving the pulpit needs of pastors. In depth exegetical analysis is provided in a sermon format, providing outlines, pastoral explanation, illustrations and applications for each passage. In addition, the material is presented with a Christ-centered approach that identifies the principles of grace in each passage that motivate and enable its application.

Reformed Expository Commentary - Ephesians

Bryan Chapell is one of the most influential homileticians, preachers, and evangelical leaders in the church today. In Ephesians we see the fruit of his preaching available now for us all. Over the last several years, Bryan Chapell has helped to shape a generation of preachers who are committed to the Gospel and to the art and craft of preaching sermons that set forth the Word of God with power and practical application. All this is on display in this fine commentary and I greet this publication with enthusiasm. -R. Albert Mohler, Jr., The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary

Bryan Chapell has done an outstanding job of making Paul's letter to the Ephesians both clear and compelling. He handles both difficult doctrines and difficult points of application with both conviction and love. This book will be profitable for both lay people and clergy. I highly recommend it. -Jerry Bridges

letter to the Ephesians was written with the hope that Christians would become individuals full of the knowledge of God so that we would become a community full of the knowledge of God... . It is only when the weightiness of God rests on the church and spills out from the church that the world is changed. Chapells commentary on Pauls letter is a great reminder that the ultimate factor in the churchs engagement with society is the churchs engagement with God. -Tullian Tchividjian, pastor, Coral Ridge Presbyterian Church
