

The Book of Concord (Luther & Lutheranism)

The new translation available in electronic format for a new generation of scholars. Now on CD-ROM, and with biblical-text links this fresh translation of The Book of Concord brings a new generation of scholarship and sensitivities to bear on the foundational texts of Lutheran identity. New scholarship, changes in the English language, new knowledge of the history and theology of these documents, and a more technology-driven populace dictated this new translation on CD-ROM. Translators: Charles Arand, Eric W. Gritsch, Scott H. Hendrix, Robert Kolb, William Russell, the late James Schaaf, Jane Strohl, and Timothy J. Wengert.
