

Perseverance (Kindle Single)

From the time she was a little girl, Kristin Peck had a plan for everything for her career, family and children. Now, graduating from business school, newly married, Kristin is ready to take the next step of starting a family. But when Kristin's first pregnancy ends with a miscarriage, she is devastated. When her second pregnancy does as well, Kristin and her husband Bob turn to in vitro fertilization and are heartbroken again after a third miscarriage. Undaunted, they turn to alternate options, including surrogacy and adoption, but face setbacks at every turn, some so unthinkable that they never could have been predicted. In the most extreme of circumstances, when all of our careful plans are thrown out the window, how do we persevere? In spite of the pain and sorrow of the many years spent trying to start their family, Kristin and Bob remain positive, loving, and driven and learn in their ultimately rewarding journey that life's joys come more from the unexpected than from the expected. 100% of Kristin Peck's proceeds from the sale of Perseverance will be donated to Family and Children's Agency. Kristin Peck is thrilled to be the working mother of two amazing children. She keeps herself sane by belting out her favorite pop and country songs while running and completing triathlons, and is proud to have recently completed her first marathon. She is currently EVP, Group President of Zoetis, Inc., the world's largest animal health company. Kristin received her bachelor's from Georgetown and her MBA from Columbia Business School. Kristin, her husband, two children and their dog live in CT. Perseverance is her first book. Cover design by Hannah Perrine Mode.
