

Rival - Part One

Five years ago on July 26th, Amy Kendrick's life changed forever. One night a year that's the time Amy Kendrick devotes to her love life. She uses it as a reminder that she's the one who's in control of her body and who she sleeps with. But this year's one-night stand doesn't go to plan. Instead of waking up next to last night's date, Amy opens her eyes to see Matthew Bowers, the billionaire CEO of DataSource, standing over her wondering why the hell she is in his bed. Despite the unusual first meeting, Matthew offers her a job so good she can't possibly refuse. Amy cannot resist Matthew's charm, his good looks, or the sparks that fly between them whenever they're in the same room. She can't deny how he makes her feel, and soon her policy of one night a year turns into something much, much more. But if he knew what happened on July 26th, he'd never look at her the same. And if he gets any closer, he might just stumble upon that secret and so many more. NOTE: Rival - Part One is the first in a series of three books. Each book will be around 80 pages in length and will go on sale for $0.99. After all three books have been released a collection of the three books will go on sale for $2.99. WARNING - contains cliffhangers!
