

Kiss Me, Kelly

An enigmatic cop and a beautiful bartender become enmeshed in a morass of secrets, lies, and irresistible passion. The stranger who shows up at Kelly Branigan's bar tells her his name is Baker. No first name. No intimate details. The attraction is instant and unstoppable. They share a sizzling, toe-curling kiss. But Baker is off limits because Kelly has one ironclad rule: Never date a cop. If she only knew ... Baker didn't just happen to walk into the Brooklyn tavern by chance. Before this night is over, Kelly will become an unwitting pawn in a sting to take down a dangerous criminal. For Baker, getting close enough to win her trust is one thing. Falling for the sensual beauty who hails from a long line of cops just ratcheted up the stakes. Now, keeping Kelly safe is the number-one priority for the Chicago cop. Keeping his hands off her is a close second ... This ebook features an extended biography of Mary Kay McComas.
