

Bernarr Rainbow on Music: Memoirs and Selected Writings (Classic Texts in Music Education)

Bernarr Rainbows (1914-1998) Memoirs written in the last year or two of his life offers a fascinating read about the life of the man who became the leading historian of music education. The book answers questions about how his life and work developed and how he came to establish the Bernarr Rainbow Trust before he died in 1998. The collection will also bring together Rainbows writings published in various magazines, some of very limited circulation. The notes by Peter Dickinson cover Rainbows earlier life and career, from archival material including press cuttings and including areas he does not cover in his memoirs. There are introductions by Gordon Cox and Charles Plummeridge. PETER DICKINSON, the composer and pianist, is emeritus professor, University of Keele and University of London. He has written or edited several books about twentieth-century music, including Copland Connotations (2002), The Music of Lennox Berkeley (2003), CageTalk (2006), and the more recent Lord Berners and Samuel Barber Remembered.
