

Seeing Stars

Momentary Passion... Arizona astronomer Claire Welland is anything but starry-eyed when it comes to romance. She knows her home on an isolated mountaintop observatory makes marriage to most men impossible, but that doesn't mean she can't have a little romantic fun. The last thing she expects when she comes home to Port Townsend, Washington, for her high school reunion is to be swept off her feet by Blake McKenzie. Forever Love... Once the town bad boy, Blake is now a prominent shipbuilder dedicated to helping local teens. When he asks Claire to talk to one of his boys about astronomy, he's only thinking she might give direction to a troubled kid. He certainly never dreamed she'd inspire him - to fall in love. Now Blake is determined to show Claire that their future together is in the stars if she'll only open her eyes.
