

Living the Days of Advent and the Christmas Season 1999

This collection of daily reflections—a perennial favorite of Paulist Press readers—is an ideal way to prepare for Advent. Instead of being a month of increasing stress, with the help of this book Advent can be a quiet season reflection on the miracle that God has come to us, will come, and is already with us now. For each day the author includes a selection from scripture or the divine office, a brief meditation, and a prayer. Together they help the hassles and trivialities of the season fall away to reveal the real and unchanging meaning beneath. Features: --handy tear-out, page-a-day format. --runs from the First Sunday of Advent to the Baptism of the Lord, noting feast days and holy days. --simple, evocative line drawings.
