

Standing the Watch: Memories of a Home Death

A warm-hearted, down-to-earth memoir of children honoring a parent's choice to die at home. Are you facing the death of your parents? Rebecca Brown has been there, done that. Standing The Watch is the story of her journey and will help you face your future. Love It! Love It! What a wonderful tribute and I wasn't at all offended! May Tracer, email friend. Does the idea of dying worry you? Standing The Watch is truly wonderful, evoking images and feelings that are visceral and real. I have attended a number of home deaths, your book will be a great help to people who are afraid. There is so much goodness there. Many, many people will cherish your book. C. J. Macgenn, author of A One-Legged Cricket. Are you undecided about taking care of your dying loved-one? Whether you intend to care for a loved-one as they die and are looking for comfort, wisdom and help, or whether you doubt that you will ever be at the bedside of a dying person, there is much to gain from Rebecca Brown's book. Lynn Lott, author of Do-It-Yourself Therapy.
