

Return to God Alone: Questioning Christianity

Christianity has risen and flourished for nearly 2000 years, with the increasing progression of the spirit and personage of Christ superseding all, gaining the ascendancy over even God. This review follows the course of the Original, and then the New Testament, applying such after finding ourselves here on earth, then strictly abiding to God and Jesus relayed affirmation of the first and greatest Commandment being that Our God is one; we are to love Him with all our heart, mind, soul and strength. (God and Jesus joint-statements), then taking it from there. This Faith and fact remains that the Creator is our God, -a Two in One, whether we like it or not, and that Christ, being in awe as us, abided to such, becoming possibly the greatest servant, teacher of God, and son of mankind. Thus we use the two bibles, faithfully adhering to the first, with the second being our next guideline to the pitfalls and challenges towards the understanding of true Godly belief.
