

Behind Her Smile (Sandy Cove Series Book 6)

Not good enough the words echo in Madison Barons mind as the darkness presses her to be thinner, more beautiful somehow more attractive to her peers. A junior in high school, she is facing life without her childhood love, Luke Johnson, who is off to college in the Midwest. Alone with her insecurities, Madison yearns for acceptance until Miles that is. Will a relationship with this new student on campus be the answer she seeks? And how will his resistance to her Christian faith affect her future? As the two of them grow closer and closer, something happens inside of Madison, and she finds herself more insecure than ever. Gazing into the mirror at her thinning face and trendy makeup, she hopes no one sees the fear behind her smile. The sixth book in the Sandy Cove Series, Behind Her Smile, touches hearts of young and old alike with the message of Gods redemption and love, reminding us that our true sufficiency and value come from Him and Him alone. Rosemary Hines has written a wonderful coming of age story that perfectly illustrates the beauty of Gods grace in the forgiveness of others and the importance of applying that same loving grace toward forgiving ourselves. A true reminder of the power of love! ~ Susan J. Calloway Knowles, Licensed Psychotherapist, Radio Host, Author
