

AMISH ROMANCE: Amys Divine Destiny

A Sweet, Clean Amish Romance Story
Amy is a young Amish woman who loves to draw and is quite gifted. In her spare time, she loves to sit and draw scenery for hours. Finding an old abandoned house one day, she sets herself up and begins to sketch. Thinking she sees someone in the upstairs window, she goes back every day to sit and see if she can see the figure again. She soon discovers that a young man about her age has been staying there and he opens up to Amy and explains his story. She begins bringing him food and is determined to help him. At the same time, a young Amish man is very interested in her, and although she likes him very much, she's really not interested in marrying at all—all she wants out of life is to draw and sell her work at the Farmers Market. But of course, God has a divine destiny for her
