

Treat Me (One Night with Sole Regret Book 8)

Nothings fair when love is war From the outside, Sole Regrets lead vocalist Jacob Shade Silverton seems to have it all fame and fortune, success and talent, self-confidence and sex appeal. He also has a sweet, young daughter who rules his heart. On the inside, he knows somethings missing from his perfect life and longs for the right woman to make his broken family whole. His new lover Amanda might be the one. As he spends a long weekend with her and discovers how she loves his daughter, warms his heart, rocks his bed, and genuinely cares about the real him not just the rock star that holds the spotlight he becomes convinced she is the one. Unfortunately, Amanda comes with some baggage. Her younger sister is Jacobs exwife and Tina has never been the type to offer her blessing. Amanda Lange wouldnt mind filling the vacancy in Jacobs life. She adores his daughter, her only niece, and shes had a most inappropriate crush on Jacob for years. Their time together as a new couple and with four-year-old Julie in tow is everything shes been dreaming of. And as her infatuation turns into something much more substantial, she starts to believe they were meant to be together. And not just herself and Jacob, but Julie too. The three of them make a perfect family. Unfortunately, Jacob comes with some baggage. His exwife is Amandas sister and Tina has never allowed Amanda to keep a man for long. Especially not one she still considers her own. While Jacob is ready to reveal his relationship with Amanda to the world, including to their shared baggage, Amanda is convinced its best to keep their secrets between the sheets and try to hide the passion and affection building between them. How long will it be before Tina discovers their secret? And when she does, will she surprise everyone and allow Jacob and Amandas love to continue to grow or will she do everything in her power to tear them apart?
