

Best-Laid Plans

July 19, 1983 ... The Kinards, the Richardses and the Webbers -- Seattle's Kennedys. Their compound -- elegant Forrester Square ...until the fateful night that tore these families apart. Twenty years later ... Their children were reunited. Repressed memories and family secrets were about to be revealed. And one person was out to make sure they never remembered ... After a painful divorce, Alana Fletcher moved to Seattle for a fresh start with her son, Corey. Now Corey wanted to find his mom a new man to marry. To the six-year-old, Sean Everett, the carpenter at his day care, was perfect. But if Alana had been looking, she'd want someone more ready to settle down than Sean. Then a construction injury caused Sean to suffer temporary amnesia -- and Corey saw his chance. He told Sean he was married to Alana. Sean couldn't believe he'd forget marrying a beautiful woman like Alana. But kissing her felt so complete ...like coming home. And more than anything, he wanted Corey to be right.
