

The Cartulary of St Augustines Abbey, Bristol (Gloucestershire Record Series)

The cartulary is an important manuscript, compiled in the late 13th century, and containing 221 folios of the title deeds to the estates of St. Augustines Abbey. The charters offer a depth of topographical and genealogical detail that is often surprising, illuminating the social and economic conditions of England in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries both in the countryside and in one of the major cities.
