

The Diary of a Professional Experienter: An Autobiographical Journey Into the Evolution of an Acting System

A true journey into the evolution of Eric Morris unique acting techniques. With humor and pathos, Morris takes readers through the events of his life that shaped his personality and led him to create his innovative acting approach. Filled with anecdotes with famous actors, directors, and other notables, including encounters with Jack Nicholson, Lee Strasberg, Quincy Jones, Francis Ford Coppola and many more. Documents the creation of a craft process that is the first complete acting system in the last century. This is an emotionally raw and poignant narrative that goes beyond the ordinary acting manual, a dynamic read about the creative struggle of a true artist who is still seeking answers.
