

The Digital Puritan - Vol.I, No.2

The Digital Puritan is a quarterly digest of carefully selected Puritan writings, suitable for personal devotional use or for small group discussion. The focus of each article is typically more practical than theological. The originals have been sparingly edited, generally only to correct typographical errors or make the text more readable. Scripture references (ESV) are embedded in the text as hyperlinks--no wireless connection is needed. Just press the BACK button when you are ready to return to the text. For less than a few shots of carmel in your coffee, you can enjoy and re-enjoy these timeless Puritan treasures all summer long! So click Buy Now, then find a quiet corner of the house, your favorite well-worn leather chair at the coffee shop, the back-yard hammock, or your beach-chair in the sand--and drink deeply from the well of Gods Word as these men taught it! This edition contains the following articles: 1. Christ Is Best - Richard Sibbes 2. Treatise on the Fourth Commandment - Thomas Boston 3. The Barren Fig-Tree - John Bunyan 4. Heaven Made Sure - Thomas Adams 5. The Audience of All Prayers - Thomas Shepard
