

The Last Christian: A Novel

In the future, its possible to live foreverbut at what cost?A.D. 2088. Missionary daughter Abigail Caldwell emerges from the jungle for the first time in her thirty-four years, the sole survivor of a mysterious disease that killed her village. Abby goes to America, only to discover a nation where Christianity has completely died out. A curious message from her grandfather assigns her a surprising mission: re-introduce the Christian faith in America, no matter how insurmountable the odds. But a larger threat looms. The worlds leading artificial intelligence industrialist has perfected a technique for downloading the human brain into a silicon form. Brain transplants have begun, and with them comes the potential of eliminating physical death altogetherbut at what expense? As Abby navigates a society grown more addicted to stimulating the body than nurturing the soul, she and Creighton Daniels, a historian troubled by his fathers unexpected death, become unwitting targets of powerful men who will stop at nothing to further their nefarious goals. Hanging in the balancethe spiritual future of all humanity.In thisfast-paced thriller, startling near-future science collides with thought-provoking religious themes to create a spell-binding what-if? novel.From the Trade Paperback edition.
