

The Life and Poems of Edgar Allan Poe: A New Memoir by E. L. Didier, and Additional Poems (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Life and Poems of Edgar Allan Poe: A New Memoir by E. L. Didier, and Additional Poems During the twenty-seven years that have passed since Edgar A. Poes death, his fame has been steadily increasing and extending, but the world has remained in ignorance of the true story of the poets life. The present memoir is as full and complete as it is possible to make it. Every person accessible to the writer, who possessed any information upon the subject, has been approached, and seldom in vain. Much fresh and interesting information has been obtained; many false statements, heretofore accepted without question, have been corrected.
