

Death and Letting Go

In a unique display of serenity, a dynamic clairvoyant of many years experience and practice offers a documented persuasive guide to death that's critical for our times. Death and Letting Go is brief, to the point, and compelling--a book that will appeal directly to a wide readership. In detailed accounts of fascinating experiences of her own and of her students, Ellen Tadd lays out a straight-forward guide to the true meaning of death, and thus, how to live positively in our earthly years and on the other side.
