

Tales and Poems (Macmillan Collectors Library Book 108)

This mesmerising, macabre collection contains Edgar Allan Poe's best-known poetry, including The Raven, Annabel Lee and Lenore, and a selection of his very best stories, along with his finest tales from the last decade of his tragically short life. Many of these stories and poems explore the familiar Poe themes of murder, obsession and love, but this volume also contains many overlooked tales of the fantastic, black comedies, parodies and hoaxes, such as The Unparalleled Adventure of Hans Pfaall, Mesmeric Revolution, Hop-Frog, and The Imp of the Perverse. This Macmillan Collectors Library edition features an afterword by David Pinching. Designed to appeal to the booklover, Macmillan Collectors Library is a series of beautifully bound hardback gift editions of much loved classic titles. Bound in real cloth, printed on high quality paper, and featuring ribbon markers and gilt edges, Macmillan Collectors Library are books to love and treasure.
