

Every Move You Make

FROM NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR... On her thirtieth birthday, Annalise Blakely gets a strange package. Inside, along with one of her companys hand-crafted dolls, is a note: I dont need this anymore. I have my own. Annalise puts the package aside-she has enough on her mind. Since her mother died, Annalise has been working nonstop to keep Blakely Dolls a success. Her deadbeat dad wants to be back in the picture. And shes dating again. But the policeman shes seeing has chilling news: someone is murdering women, dressing them up as Blakely Dolls, and leaving them for the police to find. And, although no one knows it yet, the killer is stalking Annalise, the model for the original doll, for his final display...
