

Morning With God - Touching the Afterlife

This is the wildly improbable tale of what happened the morning Ben Madden killed himself. As you have probably guessed, things didn't exactly go according to plan. It's not every day that you swig a bunch of pills, close your eyes and then open them again, only to see God himself seated across from you. I guess you could call it a near death experience, however for Ben it seemed different. But doesn't everyone say that? When he tells people about what happened that morning, they invariably ask How do you know it wasn't a dream?. All he can say is that he found out some things about his past that he is pretty darn sure he had no way of knowing. But hey, maybe it was a dream. A beautiful, life-changing dream that gives his future new-found possibilities and his past new-found clarity.
