

Rebecca Schwartz Mysteries 1-3: Three Funny Cozies (The Rebecca Schwartz Series)

THREE DELICIOUS FUNNY MYSTERIES...AT A YUMMY BARGAIN PRICE! Funny, lively lawyer Rebecca Schwartz is a perennial favorite among cozy readers who can't get enough of smart-mouthed women sleuths. You can't read just one, they're like chocolates! So pretend they are heres a succulent sampler at the delectably tempting bargain price of $4.99 barely more than half price. That's what we call a delicious Kindle deal! (And by the way, they go well with chocolates.)

DEATH TURNS A TRICK A rollicking tale of murder, romance, and bordellos A lively romp of a novel Smith shows an Agatha Christie-like capacity for making much ado about clues, concocting straw hypotheses, and surprising us, in the end. -San Francisco Chronicle Funny and witty, with a clever, outspoken heroine. Library Journal Rebecca Schwartz, nice Jewish lawyer with a few too many fantasies, is happily playing the piano in a warehouse when she suddenly finds herself assigned to make sure a near-naked state senator escapes a police raid. That dirty job done, a lovely evening turns even more delightful when she's picked up by the cops and spends the next two hours at the Hall of Justice. Could this day get any worse? Of course! Guess who arrives home to find a dead hooker on her living room floor? Fans of Janet Evanovich, Joan Hess, and Elizabeth Peters will get a kick out of this one.

THE SOURDOUGH WARS a brisk and breezy item, which like sourdough itself has its own distinctive and satisfying flavor. -San Diego Union

TO YOU, ITS JUST A FROZEN LUMP OF DOUGH; BUT TO SOME, ITS LIFE AND DEATH Especially to handsome Peter Martinelli, who wants to auction off the fabled sourdough starter from his family's famous bakery. But who'd buy a frozen hunk of flour and water? Only, it turns out, every bakery in San Francisco, a national food conglomerate, and an upstart ringer with a mysterious backer. Someone would even kill for it. And does. A tasty treat of a San Francisco mystery. A crisp, tangy story you're sure to get a rise out of. You won't find it a bit crumb-y. TOURIST TRAP Fear stalks the streets! reports the San Francisco Chronicle. It also stalks these pages, and so do a lot of laughs. You just know the Easter sunrise service is going to be a bummer when the San Francisco fog lifts to reveal a body nailed to a landmark cross. Next: mass shellfish poisoning at Pier 39. A very different kind of serial killer is operating here one who seems to have a grudge against the whole city. And this is a very different kind of serial killer tale a funny one. Well, actually, what serial killers funny? But lawyer sleuth Rebecca Schwartz is warm and witty, never takes herself too seriously, and on one occasion offers closing testimony with green hair.
