

Thursdays Child

Thursdays Child chases the whole... Broken...with bits missing. Thats how Niamh, senior prosecutor for the CPS, feels when she wakes in hospital severely injured with no knowledge whats happenedfor the past ten years. A tall man in a firefighters uniform claims hes her husband. While hes everything shes ever dreamed of, she doesnt know him. And if he was so important why cant she remember? Was there something so terrible in her marriage that her mind has suppressed it? First on the scene at a horrific accident, Jared Harkin is devastated to find his wife amongst the injured. Hes already lost a child, can he live through this? Niamh survives the crash, but awakens with no memories of their life together. Determined to help her remember the past and their love, he sets about wooing her all over again. But are some things best forgotten? As Niamh struggles to remember, the investigation into the accident reveals foul play. Did her recent caseload have anything to do with the attempt on her life? Or was it someone closer to her? As bit and pieces of memory return, the attacker strikes again. Can she piece together the whole of her past before its too late?
