

Henry

Can light find its way through darkness? Or does it become consumed, never to shine again? Sent into Witness Protection outside a small town in Astoria, Oregon, Prue Collins carries a secret that endangers more than just her own life. Though her world has been turned upside down, she doesn't expect the cold shoulder from the man meant to protect her. Rude and sarcastic, Ex-Officer Henry Clay wants nothing to do with his new roommate, and doesn't mask any hard feelings, only secrets. His wheelchair gives Prue a glimpse of his tragic past and she can't fight curiosity as more clues come her way, opening her eyes to the true stranger she's been sent to live with and possibly, meant to help save. Can these two work together to keep her safe? Will the light make it through? Or will the truth be the thing that rips them apart? Christian Fiction
