

Delia and the Drifter (Westward to Home Book 1)

Misty Beller, author of The Lady and the Mountain Man, says: Melody Carlson has done it again with this delightful story, taking us back to a wilder time, with characters who capture your heart and unexpected twists that will keep you reading past your bedtime! -Misty M. Beller, bestselling author of The Lady and the Mountain Promise An arranged marriage to save the family from ruin? Delia Blackstone knows what her mother is up to she intends to marry her off to an older man who is all fortune and no future. And Delia's having none of it. When a mysterious visitor appears on the family doorstep and offers an opportunity for Delia to travel from Pennsylvania to Colorado, Delia knows it is time for her to strike out on her own and discover a new life. Along the way she encounters a handsome drifter who captures her heart. But is he interested in trading his exciting life of adventure for love? Two murders, a missing will and a number of puzzling relationships are enough to unsettle anyone even smart, capable Delia. Who can she trust? And can she trust her heart in matters of love?
