

What Makes Me Happy Is Family and Good Friends

This book is about how things were when I was growing up on a farm in North Dakota. Everything I did was funpicnics, family get-togethers and playing softball in Manfred on Sunday afternoons. Its very interesting growing up in a rural part of North Dakota, where you can see for miles and miles and miles everywhere you look. You can see the horizon from any direction. It was sure fun swimming in the river that goes through our farm. The water is so clear in North Dakota you can see the bottom. I had a fabulous time growing up, and this book will tell you some of my many memories and adventures, and some of the people I shared them with.
